What is magic?

I think magic is a lot of things to a lot of people.

I think to magicians magic is mostly the emotions that a spectator feels - I think the magic lives there.

What is magic for a spectator?

I think it's almost like that feeling of walking up the stairs in the dark and you think you're at the last step, and you go to take the step, but there are no more steps. And you're sort of unbalanced for a second.

In that split second your whole world has just shifted.

Everything you thought was real, everything you knew was a fact, as sure as you're stepping on it, just disappear.

I think that's magic.
